Further to yours of March 6th, 2007, please note that neither Mr. Hunter nor I am retained to represent [REDACTED] with respect to the website you refer to. However, I have relayed your correspondence to our client, and have been instructed to relay my client's intention to avoid defaming any individual(s), and if there is any specific material that in your view approaches this threshold, kindly bring it to our attention and we will direct the material to the directors of the site, as our client indicates he has no malicious intent. We are unable to provide any commitments to you concerning the dismantling of the site, however.

Regarding the question of restoring the visits on a voluntary basis as raised in ours of March 1st, 2007, could we kindly have a definitive reply? We trust your clients have had ample opportunity to consider this.

Yours truly,

ROE & COMPANY
