Dear Sir:

RE: ██████████ v. ██████████ et al
FLD No. 117 of 2006
Your File No. 131.01
Our File No. 2132.1

We have yours of July 27 for reply. Unless we are mistaken, we are not aware of an obligation to copy all counsel with all correspondence as your letter suggests. Rest assured we will respond to correspondence from your office, and that we are not aware of any ethical concerns with our communications thus far. By the same token we would not expect to automatically be copied on all correspondence as between Mr. Blenner-Hassett and yourself, for example.

If, however, you are aware of such an obligation, feel free to share the source of same with us, for our consideration. Meanwhile, we trust this is satisfactory in response to your recent letter.

Yours truly,

ROE & COMPANY
