Dear Sir:

RE: [REDACTED] v. [REDACTED] et al
Next Court Date: September 15th, 2006
Our File No. 2132.1
Your File No. 44214

---

Further to the above and our last discussion of the matter, I had thought to provide you with correspondence earlier, but our clients' instructions to proceed with all dispatch and the passage of time have apparently overtaken earlier intentions.

Please find enclosed for service upon you:

1. Amended Notice of Motion;
2. Supplemental Affidavit of [REDACTED];
3. Affidavit of [REDACTED];
4. Draft Notice of Third Party Claim.

We remain interested in securing your consent to having your clients added as parties in their own right, as well as discussing when our clients might meet yours for the purpose of facilitating contact with the child. Our materials hopefully offer your clients some positive indications concerning our client in the short term. Meanwhile, we are seeking a declaration of paternity on the return date, along with the other relief set out in our amended motion.

We look forward to hearing from you at your early convenience.

Yours truly,

ROE & COMPANY
